

1800s School Days

- 1 An 1800s student would frequently bring their lunch to school in a _____
- 4 A common punishment for a misbehaving student was wearing a _____
- 6 The _____ system of education is when older students taught younger students.
- 7 Many students learned by _____ memorization, which meant repeating things until they would never forget them.
- 9 Part of learning to write was learning good handwriting, also known as _____
- 10 In Florida, some students attended _____, which were closed during the local fruit picking season.

DOWN

- 1 A reading _____ was a textbook studied to learn reading skills
- 2 When a student was at school, they used chalk to write on their _____
- 3 The form of math taught in a one room schoolhouse was known as _____
- 5 Students would learn how to pronounce words correctly by practicing their _____
- 8 Many schools would have a break called _____ part way through the school day when students would play outside.

